

My friend SANTA visited our Grandkids last night! There is nothing as memorable as a visit from Santa for young kids and boy were my three grandkids delighted when "Poppy's" close friend, Santa, came by for a personal visit to hear their Christmas wishes personally and share the Christmas spirit. What Joy! And what a great photo op! We may just have to do this every year... There's more info on his website...