

Last December, while taking a stroll through the local plaza, we saw Santa and just had to take a picture and tell him what we wanted for Christmas ☺ He was so friendly and jolly just as you would picture Santa to be! The look on the children's faces as they stared in awe and thought about what they were going to ask Santa for was priceless. I'm looking forward to seeing him again this Christmas season, so we can make this an annual tradition. No matter how old you are, you're never too old to visit Santa – especially this one!
